DESSERTS

A close-up photograph of a dessert being served. A hand holds a small white ramekin, tilted to pour a thick, dark red sauce (likely raspberry or berry compote) over a slice of cake. The cake has a golden-brown crust and a moist, textured interior. It sits on a white ceramic plate. The background is dark, making the vibrant red sauce and the light-colored cake stand out. Green leafy garnishes are visible around the plate.
